

DEMAND SILVER MONEY.

The following important manifesto was issued in London the 30th of Nov., the United Textile Factory Workers' Association, representing the entire textile trade of Great Britain:

"The council of this association have for a considerable period given much attention to the effect upon the permanent interests of the textile industry of Great Britain of the demonization of silver, consequent upon the absence of a power of exchange between gold and silver moneys. The conclusion they come to, which has been much strengthened by events of the last year, is that this property of the trade in some branches, probably its very existence, is involved in the question.

"In the interest, therefore, of others employed in the textile industry, whom they represent, and whose well being the association has specially to safeguard, a clear duty is imposed upon them, which they cannot and must not evade. That duty is to impress by every legitimate means in their power, upon those who have to seek Parliamentary influence, the imperative necessity of insisting that the Government and Parliament shall at once seriously grapple with the evils of our present monetary system and take such immediate steps as shall insure the recognition of silver as the standard money throughout the British Empire and between this and other nations.

"Whatever the other question of importance may be before the country the urgent need of reform demands that it shall be properly dealt with. It is pressed upon the council that they should, without loss of time, inform you that circumstances connected with the well-being of those employed in it render it imperative that the whole force, political and moral, of the industrial classes of the country shall be exercised to promote it and carry it to a successful conclusion.

This is signed by representatives of every association of the trade in the country.

BLAINE'S DOUBLES.

It is said that Professor Charles B. Young, the Chief of the Emerson Institute in Washington, bears such a striking resemblance to Mr. Blaine, that he is frequently mistaken for the Secretary. It is said also that there is a man in New York, who walks down Warren street from Broadway every morning, who bears a startling physical resemblance to the Secretary. There is another man in San Francisco, Colonel R. H. Taylor, who looks like Blaine, except that he is better looking, and when he is shaken up he can make just as good a speech. And he is by the way, the most versatile genius, actor, orator, story teller, reader in the world. He can convulse a crowd of men with a story and the next moment read a funeral sermon in a way to make every woman in the house cry her eyes out. If Blaine is in bad health he had better run for President, and get his doubles—if those in the east are like the one in the west—to do his campaigning. By the way, he don't need any stump speaking; if he runs for President and lives until election, the fellow on the other side will not be in it.—Salt Lake Tribune.

The Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company has paid all its railroad taxes to Controller Holgan, amounting to $2,303. All the railroads have now paid their taxes within the time allowed by the law, except the Pullman Palace Car Co., and it will be compelled to pay an additional 5 per cent.

Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Agent Brady, at Wingate Station, A. T., was held up and robbed Sunday night. The robbers secured a gold watch and chain and several hundred dollars belonging to the railroad and to Wells Fargo & Co., Express Company. Soldiers are after the robbers.

The Mono County Grand Jury has made a report on the Poker Tom and Ah Tia tragedies at Bridgeport. The course of the law officers is very much condemned. One of the Indian witnesses before the jury said: "Our Chief say no talk. Tom dead 1, Tia dead; pretty good."

Cider.

Doc, Benton has leased several orchards and is concentrating his attention to the production of genuine apple cider fit for table use or mince pies. It is the real article and can be ordered at his livery stable. o23tf
